Galilee news

Friends, neighbors and relatives were saddened to hear of the death of the Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Sr. last week.

The Rev. Lawing was one of the most beloved and respected citizens of Appomattox. His influence and guidance were remembered by many people nationwide.

The great turnout at his funeral service Saturday stood as testimonial to his life. His talents were utilized in many constructive ways in various areas of American society. He will be greatly missed by family and friends.

This coming Sunday morning at Galilee Church, regular morning services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Pastor Davis and his choirs will be in charge of the service.

On the afternoon of that Sunday, the youth department will present Mrs. Juanita Rodriques and the Wesley Brothers in concert. The youth department promises some excellent gospel music. The event will get underway at 3 p.m.

The family of the late Rev. R. Q. Lawing extends thanks to each individual for the kind expressions of love, concern and sympathy during their period of bereavement. Thanks to each caller, visitor and friend who gave food, cards and donations. May God continue to bless you, all in the most bountiful way.
